

Did you know that Service-Learning helps students to be more connected to their school and community. Also, people who serve as adults are happier, healthier and more satisfied with their lives.

SOME THINGS TO THINK ABOUT AS YOU PARTICIPATE IN SERVICE-LEARNING:

You will represent your family and school.
Do it with integrity by presenting yourself in appropriate attire and being well-groomed.

Use appropriate language with children, the elderly, animals, etc.

Listen respectfully and follow all directions.
These are important social skills in future careers and in life.

Honor all time commitments you make.
This is a life skill you will need in any career you choose.

Be prepared with whatever materials you need.
(Notebook, pencil, sweater, gloves, your Service-Learning Log, etc.)

Ask questions or clarify tasks when you are unclear of what is expected of you.

Show character and be honest in all service-learning situations.

Keep an accurate Service-Learning Log.
Without a confirmation, you won't get credit for your hours of service.

Some of your teachers may offer service-learning hours related to your course.
Make sure they register the service-learning experience with the number of hours you have completed per each service-learning experience. (And be sure you keep a log of your hours of service.)

Turn in your Service-Learning Logs after every project to the Service-Learning Provider.
Make sure it is neat, complete and accurate. Keep a copy!

STRIVING. ACHIEVING. EXCELLING.
