

English 2 Course Syllabus

Course Description:

English 2 is a more in-depth exploration of both literature and nonfiction texts. Students will analyze these texts and explore them through writing.

---

Course Objectives:

- When reading informational text, examining Key Ideas and Details is essential.
  - Full comprehension of a text requires the ability to understand and analyze explicit and inferential ideas.
  - Authors of informational and argumentative texts present information, advance opinions, justify positions, and make judgments to inform and/or persuade readers.
  - Analysis of these texts requires understanding the central ideas or arguments, as well as the interactions between and among ideas/arguments.

Required Materials:

- Notebook and/or organizer with loose-leaf paper
  - Pens/Pencils (highlighters optional)
  - School Chromebook (must be in working order; report issues to Mr. Talley or tech services)
