

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR HONORS STUDENTS

The University Honors College oversees the awarding of three of the university's most prestigious awards to incoming first-year freshmen. We are seeking students who are extremely driven and offer unique and personalized experiences aimed to empower their professional growth, fuel their passion for lifelong learning, and inspire their commitment to a stronger community. Finalists for these scholarships are selected from all students who apply to the Honors Program by the priority deadline, with decisions based on, but not limited to, completed application, exceptional academic ability, leadership, community involvement, interviews and letters of recommendation. The University Honors Program application will grant consideration for each program and depending upon the criteria met, applicants will be placed into a review for one or all scholarships.
