

November 10th Announcements

Good evening, Giraffe Nation, this is Mr. W, Principal of Jesse Wharton Elementary School, with some important announcements for the upcoming week.

Monday, November 11th – School and office are closed in observance of Veterans Day. We want to recognize and express our appreciation for those who have served or are currently serving our country! We thank you!

Original Artwork Information from Mrs. Pendegraph: It's that time of year again - time to support the art room and purchase memorable keepsakes created by your student! Our school has teamed up with Original Works to turn your students' art into fabulous creations. Your student will be bringing home an order form with all the details this week. All orders are made online. Our ordering will run from 11/6-11/19. If you do purchase items, they will be returned to our school by 12/13. Your students' original piece of art will be returned at a later date. Thank you for your support!

Parents, please see attached the GCS Virtual Help/Tutoring Flyer. Some of you inquired about additional ways to provide support to your student, and the flyer has several options for families to use.
