

October 6th Announcements

Good evening, Giraffe Nation. This is Mr. W, principal of Jesse Wharton Elementary School, with some important announcements for the upcoming week.

PTA Movie Night Information – Friday, October 11th the PTA will show Inside Out 2 on the back basketball court. Concessions will begin at 6pm, and families can pre-order pizza by Tuesday, October 8th.

Vision Screener will be conducted on Wednesday, October 9th for all students in 1st, 3rd, and 5th grade. If the clinician finds anything of significance the school nurse will contact parents to provide more information.

Friday, October 18th is an optional teacher workday, and there is no school for students.

Giraffe Nation, please consider helping us provide much needed resources and supplies to those who were impacted by the hurricane. Supplies can be dropped off on the Tower table for your student, and we will be sending those supplies to those in need as well as giving Tower points for the Tower with the most number of items donated by October 18th!!

The PTA Spirit Wear store is now having their FLASH sale has been extended through October 6th with discount pricing which features two new designs. Also, once the flash sale ends, there will be an on-demand spirit wear store available throughout the year which will include some of the standard spirit wear items at the following link: <https://spirithero.com/collections/jesse-2>
