

Guilford County Giving Away Lots Of Food In Upcoming Weeks

The Guilford County Board of Commissioners is extremely proud to announce the second part of this food give away, which consist entirely of funds set aside to address food insecurities,” said Carolyn Coleman, Guilford County Commissioner – District 7. “The Board felt strongly that we should use these funds to help our constituents during this very challenging time. We are very pleased with the overwhelming support from our community churches and nonprofit organizations, which will shoulder the responsibility of distributing these food boxes to the Guilford County community throughout the winter.”

The churches and nonprofit organizations participating as distribution locations include:
