

Winter Break Reading Challenge

Get caught reading over break!

Read at least 300 minutes over winter break and you could win a Kindle Fire or other fun prizes!

The details:

Minutes must be read and recorded between December 23 and January 4. A completed winter break reading log must be turned in to the school library media coordinator by Friday, January 8.

Winter Break is here and GCS wants you to keep reading! Use this log to record the minutes you are reading over the break. When winter break ends, return your form to your school's library media coordinator for an opportunity to win prizes. Students must read at least 300 minutes to qualify for the prizes! Give the completed reading log to your school library media coordinator by January 8.
