

The City of Greensboro and Guilford County Schools have partnered to plant trees at local public schools. Sixty-five trees were planted at Dudley High School on NC Arbor Day, March 17th. The community came out in full force—members of City Council, Board of Education, City of Greensboro, and Community Volunteers, along with students and staff--to make Dudley an even more beautiful place for future generations!

