- “Maggie can always be counted on to answer questions and offer her ideas in class. She is consistently reliable and hardworking. Thanks Maggie!”

- Mr. Craven

Sabine S.

- “It is my pleasure to nominate Sabine Spaulding for the Student of the Month. She is always optimistic during our morning meetings. She is 100% engaged in class and genuinely cares about the well-being of everyone in the meeting. I can always count on her to participate (and to remind me to push record!) and give well thought out insights or feedback to the class discussions. She is such an over-all good person and it shows in the way she speaks to me and her peers. She is extremely hardworking and I can always tell that she spends hours upon hours on her art assignments. This is my second year having her in my class and I have really loved watching her grow into a more confident artist and an awesome human being. Sabine is dependable and responsible, and witty beyond her years.”

- Ms. Peterson

Aiden I.

- “Aiden is always present in class. He is an active participant in the daily learning environment answering questions and asking questions. Thanks Aiden!”
