Staff Present: Nora K. Carr, EdD, Kim Hipp

Other: Khem Irby, Linda Welborn

The Committee approved the January 22, 2019 meeting minutes.

2020 Legislative Agenda

- Committee State Priorities
  - Committee members will present the following priorities at the *March 20 Legislative Delegation Breakfast meeting:
    - Career and Technical Education – Pat Tillman
    - Teacher and Principal Pipeline – Darlene Garrett
    - Bus Driver Shortage – Byron Gladden
- Federal Legislative Agenda
  - Committee will review Federal Legislative Agenda items at the next Committee meeting and will bring those items back to the full Board for discussion and approval.
  - H. Res. 702 – Committee is not in favor of presenting to the full Board for the district’s 2020 Federal Legislative Agenda at this time. Committee and staff will continue to watch this legislation and will review in the future if necessary.

Other:

- Staff will share Committees feedback regarding a CTE Update and a School Safety Update at a future Board meeting.
- Staff will follow up regarding when State Bonds can be submitted, e.g., only on even years, and if a moratorium can be added that is regarding charter schools.

*The planned March 20 meeting between the Board of Education and Guilford County’s Legislative Delegation to the General Assembly was canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic. A virtual meeting was held instead on March 31 to focus on the pandemic’s impact on GCS.

Next Meeting:

March 19, 2020
