TRC proposals - were to be voted on at staff meeting for next school year reasons for need to change testing

3 viable proposals - 1st proposal - not going to fly

-proposal C - early release

-Concentrated testing - 9 people trained - pros - test 8 days, specials?

-cons - pay Beasley, train, loses 16 days of tutoring

-combined testing

Questions - combo of proposals?

-funds at school available?

-other personnel?

-volunteers from PTO?

For this year - ask for volunteers to help in K when assistants are pulled

Revisit @ SIT next month

Makeup time starts at 3:30. Trash on the playground - getting better

VI. Indicators to Assess-Create-Monitor

Indicators Assessed

Objectives Planned For

Monitor (updates made)

No tasks have been completed since the last meeting. Several will be completed coming up in the next month.

VII. Other Business

Action Taken:

Take back to grade levels - sub is becoming an issue - push that if you are going to be out, put in for a sub.

Teach Passion - teacher give to SIT member the positives and negatives

Alamance vs. Pleasant Garden ball game - April 12

Mother/Son Ball - spread the word - some still confused - there is a Ball and a Quest

Teacher Allotments - Transfer fair in April - Mr. Taylor will send this out with weekly newsletter to staff on Sunday - by middle of next week, Taylor will have ideas of who to go to what grade level - by Sunday, he plans to send out plans to who is where - Not Final by any means - will wait on data

Dates that need to be set - scheduling meeting, EC transition meeting - June 11 - can't happen - June 12 - maybe ok

GCS has not named snow make up yet

Testing has to be within last 10 days of school - promotion and awards could change if last day of school changes

Scheduling meeting - may be 1/2 day before the end of May

Classroom Changes 2018-2019 - Sibley will be moving, discussion of moving 3rd grade to lower building to put 3rd - 5th grade in same building - Admin may move back to office areas - based on what's coming - K-2 building and 3-5 building

Room assignments are not the focus - changes will happen
