THE HORNET BUZZ

GREETINGS FROM HORNET NATION:

Here at WGHS, we value the importance of community. We understand that it is the WE in WEstern that makes us great.

Hornet Nation is honored to add you to our growing list of community partners and we look forward to sharing all the great things happening here at the Hive.

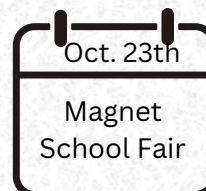

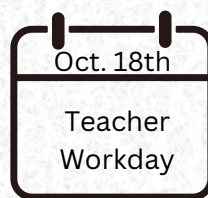

Please also check out our website:
www.gcsnc.com/western_guilford_high for even more WGHS updates

BIG NEWS:

Jeff Silverthorne, a teacher at Western High's Transportation, Distribution, and Logistics Signature Career Academy, won Teacher of the Year. Silverthorne, a military veteran with more than 30 years of experience in the logistics industry, brings an innovative approach to the classroom. "My approach involves forging strong partnerships with local businesses to create internship opportunities that are directly aligned with the workforce needs of our community," -Mr. Silverthorne

UPCOMING EVENTS:

HOW YOU CAN HELP MAKE THE HIVE THRIVE:

Have your email contact added to the WGHS

Helping Hands list:

When individual emergency family needs arise, School Social Work will email this list with a quick overview of the need. If it is a need you or your organization can help with, simply email back and the Social Worker will make contact.

Email Social Worker Emily Parsons at parsone2@gcsnc.com.

Share your community events:

Send information or flyers about any of your upcoming events and we will share them with Hornet Nation

Email Social Worker Emily Parsons at parsone2@gcsnc.com.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS OF THE MONTH OF AUGUST/SEPTEMBER:

Here at WGHS we value our community partners and we want to highlight what you do for us:

Each Wednesday our students meet for Advisory Class, and these two organization have come together to provide much needed “preparing for the next step” lessons that are tailored to meet the needs of each grade level. These lessons are provided to WGHS students the 3rd Wednesday of each month

Thank you!!!
